

88.2%*

achieved by the Free State's

CLASS OF 2016

Congratulations for being the best performing province nationally

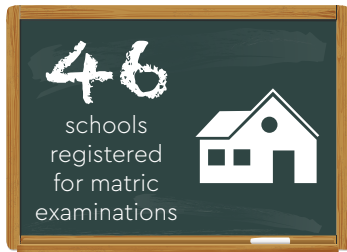

*with progressed learners

The partnership between the Free State Department of Education, the Thabo Mofutsanyana Education District & Kagiso Trust implemented the Beyers Naudé Schools Development Programme (BNSDP) in 166 schools in Thabo Mofutsanyana, Free State, from 2007 to 2016.

89.13%

BNSDP results

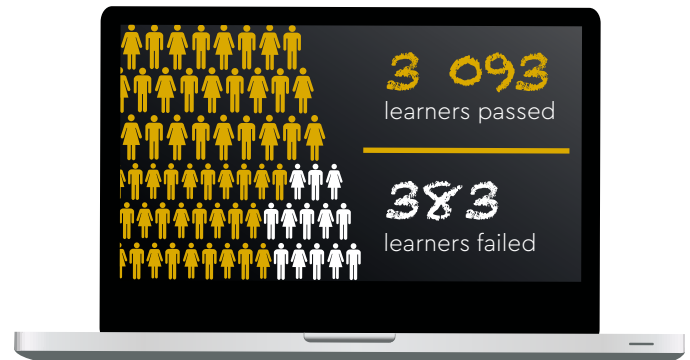

89.13% average, an increase of 3.76% (85.37%) from 2015 pass rate achieved by BNSDP schools

12 schools achieved	100%
15 schools achieved between	90-99%
10 schools achieved between	80-89%
8 schools achieved between	70-79%
1 schools achieved between	60-69%

3 988

learners enrolled for matric

1 263

bachelor passes

1 281

diplomas obtained

549

higher certificates obtained

Well done to Ntebaleng Letaoana of Kgola Thuto Secondary School (BNSDP programme school) who is one of the top ten performers in the Province.

Thabo Mofutsanayana District

Class of 2016 Free State BNDSP Matric Results

The BNSDP programme schools have received a steady increase in performance year-on year

	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016
Underperforming (below 69.9%)	6	4	5	2	3	3	1
Average (70%–79.9%)	3	8	9	6	10	10	8
Bronze (80%–89.9%)	1	4	15	14	11	8	10
Silver (90%–99.9%)	0	3	12	22	12	17	15
Gold (100%)	0	0	4	2	10	8	12
% Pass	62.1	0	81.5	88	84.5	85	89.13

Performance by District

In 2013 Kagiso Trust's education programme was expanded into the Motheo and Fezile Dabi districts through a partnership between Kagiso Trust, Cyril Ramaphosa Foundation (formerly known as Shanduka Foundation) and the Free State Department of Education.

	2015 %	2016 %	% increase
1. Xhariep	78.4	92	13.6 ↑
2. Fezile Dabi	86.2	91.8	5.6 ↑
3. Thabo Mofutsanyana	87.5	90	2.5 ↑
4. Lejwelepula	82.6	86	3.4 ↑
5. Motheo	74.8	85	10.2 ↑

Top three performing provinces

1. Freestate	88.2%*
2. Western Cape	85.9%*
3. Gauteng	85.1%*

National average 72.5%

*with progressed learners

"This is a partnership which shares the Department's vision of 'raising the bar and leaving no child behind'. It aims at joint accountability from parents, teachers, schools, provincial and district offices of the department as well as the broader community in resolving the education challenges"

– MEC Tate Makgoe, Free State Department of Education